Imagine you are in charge of the country and write a set of laws. Include what the punishments would be for breaking your laws!	From your class learning and home learning on crime and punishment – make a model of your favourite punishment.	Research and present information about how people are punished now. Do you agree with all our current punishments?
Find out about the work of police officers or public defenders. Present your findings in any way you like.	Make a wanted poster for a famous real or fictional criminal e.g. Jack the Ripper, Mary Ann Cotton, Voldemort, Moriarty… Don't forget to include their crimes and a reward.	What was the job of an executioner? Why were they often masked? Design or research an executioner's outfit. Don't forget to label and explain your choices.
Listen to the news or read a newspaper for a week. Make notes on the crimes reported and how the criminal was punished.	Write an acrostic poem for crime or punishment.	Write a timeline of punishments throughout the ages.
