Highclare School Junior English Writing Competition

The Highclare Senior School English department, invites all potential authors in Yr3 to Yr6 to take part in our exciting creative writing competition.

On the 10th May in 1824, the famous National Gallery London art museum opened its doors to the public for the very first time. Choose a painting from the art gallery and write a creative response inspired by the art work.

Maximum of 150 words.

Please include copy of your painting with your entry.

PRIZES * 1 top prize winner will receive a book token and be presented with the Highclare School Junior Creative Writing Competition shield. * 9 further winning entries will be presented with certificates and a book token. * All winners will feature on our website and all entrants will be invited to a presentation evening and special exhibition to be held at Highclare School.

Send your piece of writing to Highclare School at the school's address to arrive no later than

FRIDAY 4 OCTOBER 2024
